MRS. EARLE J. HILLIER

Miss Peggy Cecil Repeats Vows with E. J. Hillier

One of the loveliest of early autumn weddings was the ceremony which united Miss Peggy Cecil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest G. Cecil of Cabrillo avenue and Corporal Earle J. Hillier, whose parents are the Harry F. Hilliers of 916 Amapola avenue.

First Baptist Church was the impressive setting for the Sunday afternoon ceremony performed by Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor. A reception followed in the church parlors and subsequently the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Hillier left for their honeymoon.

Given in marriage by her father, the charming bride wore a gown of white taffeta designed with lace insertion on the skirt, lace bodice and long gloves. Her bouquet was composed of white gardenias with a detachable corsage of white orchids.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Walter S. Hillier, was charming in a gown of pink taffeta complemented with a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Beverly Karganalia of San Diego, Carolyn Briles of Gardena and Vickie Lee of Torrance wore identical gowns of taffeta in pastel green, blue and lavender, respectively. Bouquets of matching carnations complemented their costumes.

Little Elizabeth Harris, niece of the bride, was flower girl in white organza, the bodice designed like the bride's.

Charles Briles was ring bearer. Mr. Walter S. Hillier was his brother's best man and ushering was Rosa Wheeler, Glenn Boyce and Robert Pickett.

Wedding marches and instrumental selections were played by Oscar Walton.

Corporal Hillier and his bride will live in San Antonio, where he is stationed at Randolph Air Force Base.
